

PLANNING A RESTAURANT REVIEW

KEY INFO

Here is some of the key info you might like to include in the introduction to your restaurant review. Using these will give your reader an indication if this review is useful to them.

NAME:

LOCATION:

TYPE OF FOOD:

COST:

OPENING HOURS:

BACKGROUND:

Consider three things that would make someone want to go and eat at this restaurant. Write about them in the boxes below in as much detail as possible to show your readers that you know what you are talking about when it comes reviewing this particular restaurant.

These could include, the quality of the food, the service you received there or even the experience as a whole. But make sure you explain why these things are important.

As we all know, nothing is perfect. So share with your audience something that you think wasn't as good as other things or something that you thought could have been better when it came to this restaurant. This shows you are unbiased in your opinion.
