

WHAT DO PEOPLE REALLY NEED TO KNOW ABOUT?

Below you will find a number of items you may have to review at some point. Under each of them, there are three boxes for you to write in. In these boxes write what you think a reader might like to know about the item in bold. If you are unsure, just think about what you would like to know about these things and that may encourage your ideas.

These ideas will help you in finding out what the key info for your review is.
